

GEN 4.2 Air Navigation Service Charges

1) An air navigational facility charge shall be payable in respect of each flight flying through airspace within the boundary of Kathmandu FIR at the rates specified below:

i. For International Flights

Aircraft Weight	Fees (US Dollar)
Upto 25,000 Kgs.	$45.90
25,001 Kgs - 50,000 Kgs.	$76.50
50,001Kgs. ~ 75,000Kgs.	$152.75
Any Part Over 75,000Kgs.	$305.50

ii. For Domestic Flights

- a) Communication & navigation Aid service charge at the rate of forty percent of the landing charge as provided for in 1.5 of GEN 4.1 - 1 shall be imposed in Tribhuvan International Airport.
- b) Communication and navigation equipment facilities service charge at the rate of twenty five percent to the landing charge as provided for in 1.5 of GEN 4.1 - 1 shall be imposed in the airports having control zone.
- c) Communication and Navigation equipment facilities service charge at the rate of fifteen percent to the landing charge as provided for in 1.5 of GEN 4.1 - 1 in the airports other than the airports mentioned in sub-clauses i. and ii.

Note.– 1) In the case of an international flight, a flight charge at the rate as provided in 4.2.1 (i) shall be imposed for the overflying facility.

2) Provision of 1.5 of GEN 4.1 - 1 shall be imposed to the helicopter operating from one location to another location for the communication and navigation service facilities.

2) Cost basis for Air Navigation Services:

For calculation of all charges, total weight of the aircraft shall be used. The total weight of an aircraft shall be the maximum take-off weight as specified under the regulation of State in which the aircraft is registered.

3) Exemptions/reductions and methods of payment are same as landing, parking and hangar charges.

4) Surcharge: -

An additional air navigation facilities charges shall be payable in respect of each flight operating at night or outside of the published operational hours of the aerodrome.